

Ann Landers

I am with several friends and relatives and they are all on my side. What do you say?—DOG-GONNED

Dear Dog-Gonned: You are fortunate not to have more serious matters to complain about. If you had to take care of the hounds or clean up after them I'd say you had a valid beef.

There's something terribly unappetizing about wives who tattle about their husbands. You may win the poll, Kiddo, but you stand to lose a great deal more. Cheer up and look to the day when he takes the children hunting.

Are you tempted to smoke because the crowd does? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Tossing Smoking," enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Recipe Hobbyist Shares Favorites with Readers

Collecting and trying out new recipes, an interesting hobby she has followed since early childhood, has brought national fame as well as local recognition to Mrs. James W. Dolan, 1351 W. 219th St. Nationally she has had recipes published and locally she has been tagged as one of the best cooks of the area by those who have had the pleasure of enjoying her culinary arts.

Mrs. Dolan retired recently after operating the service station at Carson and Figueroa for 11 years.

When asked for her favorite recipes, Mrs. Dolan chose two which have been published nationally, California Baked Beans which was selected for a 1927 issue of Better Homes and Gardens and a Macaroon Pudding, which was published by the Mandell Egg Co. Along with these she is contributing two other tempting recipes which have brought compliments at lodge and church dinners.

MOCK BAKED HAM
1 1/2-lb. ground beef 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
1 12-oz. can luncheon loaf 1 cup cracker crumbs
1 small onion 1 egg
1 tsp. celery salt 1 1/2 cups milk

Grind luncheon loaf and onion. Blend all ingredients very thoroughly. Mix with hands. Shape into a loaf and place in open baking pan.

Make a spiced glaze sauce, spread over loaf and bake for one hour at 375 degrees.

Spiced Glaze: Mix 1 tsp. prepared mustard, 1 tsp. catsup and brown sugar. Spread over loaf.

CALIFORNIA BAKED BEANS
1 cup Navy beans 1/2-lb. ground round
1 tsp. salt 2 cups canned tomatoes
Pinch of soda 1/2 cup brown sugar
3 med. onions (sliced) 4 slices bacon

Soak beans overnight, add salt and soda and cook until tender. Brown meat in frying pan, add the beans and tomatoes. Cook for 5 minutes. Pour half the mixture into a baking dish, sprinkle with half of brown sugar and cover with onions. Add rest of the beans, meat, and lay strips of bacon over the top. Sprinkle with the remainder of the sugar and bake until brown, about 1/2 hour.

MACAROON CUSTARD PUDDING
1/2 lbs. gelatin 1 doz. macaroons (broken)
3 cups milk 1 cup chopped nuts
1 cup sugar 1 cup marischino
4 eggs, separated 1 bottle marischino
1 tsp. vanilla cherries (diced)

Add gelatin to cold milk, let stand five minutes to soften. Beat sugar into egg yolks, combine with milk and heat to boiling, stirring constantly, cool slightly. Beat egg whites until stiff, fold into milk mixture, add vanilla. Into a 7x11 inch pan put layers of macaroons, custard, nuts and cherries, topping with custard. Chill in refrigerator until set. Serves 10 to 12.

CRUMB PIE
3/4 cup dry cake 1/4 cup flour
or 1/4 tsp. ginger
Cookie crumbs 1 tsp. cinnamon
1 cup maple syrup 1/4 tsp. nutmeg
1/2 cup raisins 1/2 cup soft butter
1 egg or margarine

Line 8 inch pie pan with pastry and sprinkle raisins over bottom. Mix beaten egg with maple syrup and pour over raisins. Combine flour, crumbs, spices and butter, working together thoroughly. Sprinkle over top of pie and bake in a hot oven 450 degrees until it begins to brown, about 15 minutes. Lower temperature to 350 degrees and bake 20 minutes longer. Top with whipped cream.

Betty Crocker Contest Open to Local Seniors

Senior girls at Torrance, South, Bishop Montgomery and North high schools will have the opportunity of competing in the General Mills ninth annual Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Seniors here will join with a record number of more than 410,000 others in more than 12,500 of the nation's schools Tuesday in a written examination to help determine winners in the 1963 search program.

The test, prepared by Science Research Associates, Chicago, to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career, is the determining factor in selecting local and state winners. Personal observation and interviews are added factors in selecting national winners.

The 1963 All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow and three runners-up will be named in the spring at the culmination of an expense-paid educational tour of New York City, Washington, D.C., and Colonial Williamsburg for winners from the 50 states and the District of Columbia and their advisors.

Scholarships range from $1,500 for each state homemaker of tomorrow and $500 for each state runner-up to $5,000, $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000, respectively, for top national winners. A complete set of Encyclopedia Britannica is awarded the school of each state winner.
